FOREWORD

These proceedings are a collection of papers presented in English at The Second PGSD UST International Conference on Education (ICE) held in Universitas Sarjanawiyata Tamansiswa on October 5, 2019. The theme of the conference is “Education in The era of Industrial Revolution 4.0”. There are more than 13 papers presenting different lines of issue which address such topics as (1) Innovation in Education, (2) Technology in Education, (3) Early Childhood and Primary Education, (4) Character Education, (5) Educational Literacy, (6) Disruptive Learning, (7) Curriculum Development, (8) Multicultural and Intercultural Education, (9) Inclusive Education, and (10) Other Related Topics.

All the papers in these proceedings were not peer-reviewed, but those papers met the basic requirements set out by the committee. In addition, to minimize the issue of plagiarism, all the papers were checked and validated using Turnitin (plagiarism detection system) with maximum tolerance of 25%. Neither the Conference Committee nor the reviewers are responsible for the content, outlook, opinions, and arguments made in the papers. The sole responsibility concerning the ethical aspect, validity of methodology, and political views in the papers rests with the individual authors.

Finally, we would like to extend our deep gratitude to all of the presenters who have shared their bright and inspiring ideas at the conference. More importantly, we express our gratitude to the board of reviewers and editors who have worked hard in screening all the submitted papers selected for the proceedings. We do hope that readers enjoy reading the papers and find them useful.
